REPORT OF THE COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

To the Citizens of Merrimack County:

In accordance with the Public Statutes of the State of New Hampshire, the Commissioners of Merrimack County herewith present the annual report of the County Commissioners, Treasurer, Superintendent of Farm and House of Correction, Clerk of the Superior Court, Sheriff, Jailer, Solicitor, Farm Physician, Chaplain and Auditors for the year ending December 31, 1918.

County Farm.

During the past year the County Farm has been in charge of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph M. Lorden as Superintendent and Matron. From the time they assumed charge they have most faithfully and, we are glad to say, successfully devoted their time and energy to their work.

The number of people cared for in the almshouse has averaged about the same as in previous years, while the number in the House of Correction has been considerably smaller. The buildings are all in good repair and condition and it is the policy to keep them so. By the purchases of additional tillage land from the Ayers Estate, the County is now not only able to raise all the produce needed for home consumption, but it has been able to sell a considerable amount to outside parties.

The cash receipts for the year for produce sold, board, work of men, teams, etc., was $13,541.03, which is the largest for any year since the institution was established.

Your attention is called to the itemized report of the Superintendent for complete data for the year.

	$34,215.74

County Poor Away from Farm.

For the care of county poor in private homes, hospitals and orphanages, there was expended during the year the sum of $38,717.11, while this amount is, of necessity, larger than in normal times, the citizens of the county may have the satisfaction of knowing that the poor have been well provided for, notwithstanding the "high cost of living."

Jail.

The care and management of the County Jail is in the efficient care of High Sheriff George A. Wooster. During the year considerable work in the way of necessary repairs has been done, quite a part of which has been done by the prisoners, under the supervision of the Jailer. For the number of commitments, etc., we would refer you to the report of the Jailer on another page.

Finances of the County.

Merrimack County has no liabilities in the way of bonds or notes and no unpaid bills, which had been presented for payment on Dec. 31, 1918, and the sum of $11,304.64 was in the hands of the Treasurer.

The valuation of the County property is as follows:

Almshouse, Court House and Jail	$214,547.00
Personal property at Almshouse	34,215.74
Personal property at Court House	4,995.00
Personal property at Jail	450.00

In the submission of this report, we take the opportunity to express to the citizens of Merrimack County our deep appreciation of their confidence and loyal support so often manifested. We invite all who may be interested to visit and inspect the institution at Gerrish.

Respectfully submitted,

Arthur H. Britton,
John F. Jewell,
John G. McQuilkin,

Commissioners of Merrimack County.

TREASURER'S REPORT.

In compliance with the general laws the following record of receipts and expenditures of Merrimack County for the year ending Dec. 31, 1918, is respectfully submitted.

REPORT OF THE CHAPLAIN.

Since the first day of last May, there has been a great falling off in attendance at the chapel services. We have always depended on the saloon to furnish a large part of our audience, and the saloon has never failed us. Saloon and audience are now gone, let us hope, forever.

The services have been greatly helped by two of the inmates, Bertha L. Colby and Alma Robillard, who have sung the old familiar songs that every one likes.

Christmas is always a merry day at the Farm as well as in the world outside. The Franklin W. C. T. U., following their custom of several years, gave an interesting musical and literary entertainment and distributed presents from 2 well laden trees. A fine turkey dinner was served to all. Mr. and Mrs. Haggerty once more decorated the chapel and other parts of the building in their well known taste and skill.

Under the efficient superintendence of Mr. and Mrs. Lorden, the workers all co-operate as one family and are doing their part to make the last days of those entrusted to their care, in many ways, the best days of their lives.

If "cleanliness is next to godliness," this institution is a most godly place. The religion of sanitation is practised every day in every department. As a result the reports will show a remarkably good health record at a time when the "flu" and other diseases have been abroad in the land.

In his talks at the chapel services, we have endeavored to keep the people there intersted in the great events that in these days are at the forefront of all human interest. The chaplain assumes that the best he has is none too good for these children of the All Father.

Respectfully submitted,

MELVIN J. ALLEN, Chaplain.

SOLICITOR'S REPORT.

To the Commissioners for the County of Merrimack:

GENTLEMEN:—I was appointed by the Court to fill out the unexpired term of County Solicitor, William W. Thayer, who resigned.

I entered upon the duties of the office June 1, 1918, and my appointment expired Jan. 1, 1919.

No civil actions are now pending in which the County is interested.

At the October term, 1918 of the Superior Court only one case was presented to the Grand Jury and one indictment reported. This was a charge of assault with intent to rape against one Alphonse Ripeau. This case was tried at the October term and the respondent was convicted of aggrevated assault, paid a fine of $100 and the costs of prosecution.

At the same term of Court one criminal case for falsely representing the measures of wood sold by him. The respondent was convicted, but having been confined to his house by sickness since the trial, has not been brought before the Court for sentence.

On October 15th of the present year, one Dennis J. Clifford was found dead at his cabin on the Derry Road in Hooksett. It was plainly a case of criminal homicide and the evidence indicated that it had been committed about three days before the body was found. Every possible effort was made to discover the criminal without success. The matter is still under investigation by the Attorney General and the incoming Solicitor, Mr. Rainie.

On complaint that liquor and cider was being illegally sold in different towns in the County, careful investigations with the assistance of special officers was made, but evidence was not secured sufficient to convict anybody, but the investigations secured evidence in a number of cases on which the Federal authorities prosecuted the parties under the Webb-Kenyon act. Investigations seemed to show there was very little sale of liquor illegally except what was brought into the State and distributed by pocket peddlers.

There are several respondents held for the next Grand Jury on serious charges.

Gambling machines in Concord and Franklin have been investigated and their use has been stopped.

I have been called upon to handle a large number of minor offences that have been disposed of by the several Municipal Courts in the County and need no particular mention in this report.

Several cases of breaking and entering against soldiers absence without leave from the Unites States Army, have been brought before the Municipal Courts and it was deemed best in such cases to turn the respondents over to the United States authorities.

A batch of four young men were brought before the Concord Municipal Court for breaking into freight cars. One of the parties was a minor under 17 years of age, and the other three were out on parole from Massachusetts Penal Institutions. These parties were turned over to Massachusetts officers to be dealt with in Massachusetts where they belonged.

Respectfully submitted,

DAVID F. DUDLEY.
